

Sydney Alexander Dunn born on the 12th October 1921 emigrated from Jamaica to England for financial gain, hoping to return to his homeland within two years, but God had another plan to fulfil His purpose. A man of great integrity, who stands today as one of the most prominent individuals, possessing the character qualities of an extraordinary leader, and took the gospel of Jesus Christ to the next level. One of his many quotes is that The graveyard is full of people who had not fulfilled their purpose, yet his life and purpose through Gods grace transformed thousands of lives all over the world. Follow the incredible journey on how God turned an ordinary man into an extraordinary person.
