

We sympathize in the suffering and participate the triumphs of those illustrious men who stand majestic amid the monuments of Time and the approbation of excellence in others, naturally leads the mind to imitate the object of its adoration. Among those patriots who have a claim to our veneration, George Washington appears in a conspicuous place in the first rank. The ancestors of this extraordinary man, in the year 1657 emigrated from England to America, and settled in the colony of Virginia; here, by unremitting industry they became opulent and respectable, and gave their name to the parish of Washington in Westmoreland county. George Washington, the hero of the following history, was the fruit of a second marriage, and was born in the settlement of Chotank, in the above-mentioned county, on the 11th of February, (O.S.) 1732. The extensive settlement of Chotank was originally purchased by the Washington family; the extreme fertility of the soil induced those settlers to cultivate tobacco in several plantations; for this purpose they purchased a number of negroes.
