

I Never Had A Banana Split

I Never Had A Banana Split is a humorous and entertaining collection of vivid vignettes about growing up in Los Angeles, California during The Great Depression. Elisa Lujan Perez paints fascinating recollections from her perspective... a young chicana (Mexican American girl) growing up during a historical and memorable period. Anyone who lived in Southern California during this time period will be truly entertained by her reminiscent depictions of her youth. Its an easy read that will leave you wishing for more.
