

Daniele Cortis (Italian Edition)

Protagonista di Daniele Cortis è un deputato cattolico che si propone la costituzione di un nuovo partito nel panorama dell'Italia del tempo, una democrazia cristiana che raccolga l'adesione dei tanti cattolici alla vita politica - vietata allora dal Non expedit papale - e abbia a capo un uomo di alte qualità intellettuali e morali. Il tentativo si rivela un fallimento, come un fallimento e la vicenda d'amore del Cortis con la cugina Elena, sposata a un personaggio indegno, che si conclude con la rinuncia in nome di un amore sublimato nel sacrificio e nella lontananza degli amanti. Nel romanzo Fogazzaro esprime per bocca del suo protagonista le proprie convinzioni politiche: Io lascerò dunque la Camera, augurando che vi entrino presto degli uomini sciolti dalle superstizioni e dalle ignoranze di un certo individualismo liberale, che si crede alla testa dell'umanità, e non s'accorge di passare alla coda; non si accorge di aver lavorato utilmente sì, a distruggere tante cose, ma di aver lavorato non per se, sibbene per uno molto più forte, molto più potente, che ora, trovando le vie sgombre, arriva e se lo piglia lui il mondo, e lascerà forse a simili liberali qualche prato d'Arcadia e poche pecore. Questi uomini penetrati dal futuro, questa gente positiva, verrà alla Camera, convinta, a differenza di altri retori e mitologi, che nel lungo lavoro di rinnovamento sociale cui le forme moderne della produzione impongono, il migliore strumento sarà una monarchia forte, sciolta da qualunque legame con qualunque chiesa, ma profondamente rispettosa del sentimento religioso. Il libro ebbe successo e il Giacosa, che lo propose all'editore torinese Casanova per la pubblicazione, scrisse a Fogazzaro che Daniele Cortis va per la strada del trionfo. Quanti lo leggono ne sono entusiasti; io me lo rilessi e me lo gustai deliziosamente: ho inteso Verga esclamare leggendolo: questo non è solamente il primo romanziere d'Italia ma dei primissimi in Europa.
