

An Amish Boy and a Mothers Prayer: The Founder of Graber Post Buildings Tells His Story

An Amish Boy and a Mothers Prayer takes readers into the heart of Daviess County, Indiana, where Glen Graber was raised. His family was swiftly kicked out of the Old Order Amish church when Glens dad bought a rubber-tired tractor. Then Glens mother died, and left him with a request: She had been praying for a business that would alleviate the familys financial hardship, and asked Glen to take responsibility for the familys future. Despite the pressure, Glen and his family found hope and humor each day as God miraculously answered their mothers prayer. More than a biography, this book is about a boy being determined to change his place in the world, and the miraculous reversals of misfortune. Its about the prayers of a mother, the idiosyncrasies and love of a father, and the strength of a family. It is, in other words, the story of us. About the Author Glen S. Graber was born in Davies County, Indiana. In 1973 he founded Graber Post Buildings. The company went on to be a huge success, and in 1993, Glen received Indianas award for Entrepreneur of the Year. He now winters in Florida with his wife Mary Jane.
