

They say when you know better, you do better, but that's not always the case. After three years in prison, Juice is about to step into a storm that only God can protect him through. Nothing is what it seems, and when people aren't who they claim to be, danger lurks in who they really are. Even when one lie is exposed, another one is going unnoticed. See what happens when Juice falls into the street-life, falls in love, then falls to his knees before God. Emmanuel Myers teams with Pantha Publications in this gripping break-out story. A compelling read that will prove that this author's time is now!
