

Home Is Where My Heart Is

Whether you grew up in Coweta County or you are a newcomer, this book will enlighten you about just how Newnan, Georgia used to be. Norma Chapman Haynes, a lifelong resident of Newnan, began her writing career if it can be called that on the staff of the Newnan High School Tiger Tracks in 1955. Tiger Tracks was printed in the Newnan Times-Herald weekly and told of the activities of the students. She has a deep love for her town and the people who have lived here. Some of her best loved memories are recorded in the pages of this book, and she has remained active in her church and in her town and county, making more memories.
