

Through the Eyes of a Child

Proverbs 22:6 Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. The wisest man that ever lived pinned these words. {King Solomon} Solomon did not specify how parents should train up their children, he left the subject totally open. However, he did specify that parents need to train them up in the way that they, SHOULD GO. He leads us to believe that, SHOULD, is living by and living according to the teachings and commandments of the almighty God. Whatever the case, Solomon did leave parents with this thought; however they choose to raise their children, and whatever they instill and put into their hearts as they are growing up, when they get old, they will not depart from it. It is my burden, and my hearts desire, to try to help parents to see and to understand that they need to take advantage of what precious time that they do have with their children, to teach them and to train them in the way that they SHOULD GO. To not fulfill the lust of the flesh, not indulging in sinful ways, but follow the teachings of the Lord. It is clear that we have no guarantee of what life style our children will choose to live. However, parents do carry the responsibility of teaching and training their children. It is my burden, and my hearts desire, to try to help parents to see and to understand that they need to take advantage of what precious time that they do have with their children, and take that opportunity to teach them and to train them in the way that they SHOULD GO. Not to fulfill the lust of the flesh, not indulging in sinful ways, but follow the teachings of the Lord which is the best way. I am totally convinced, that if parents will use Gods word, the Holy Bible as a foundation to build their children lives on, that by doing so, they will greatly increase the odds that their children will not end up in trouble with the law, nor will they end up in gang activity, or on drugs, or kill somebody in a car accident because of being intoxicated on drugs or alcohol which is the desire and heartbeat of every parent. The best way that I know of, on how to help parents understand exactly how important it is to train, and to raise their children in the way that they should go, is to see life, not only through the eyes of a child, but also through the eyes of one who was raised as a child in a sinful home. A home with a father who was an alcoholic. A place not filled with joy and laughter, but fighting, anger, and extreme mental abuse. However, I did have the privilege of having a God fearing grandmother, who took me under her wing, and who took it upon herself to teach me, and to train me in the ways of the Lord. Through the eyes of a child, is dedicated to the saved and unsaved, young and old alike. Through the eyes of a child, is dedicated to the saved and unsaved, young and old alike. Life begins in the womb. From birth until whenever, parents needs to take the time to see life through the eyes of their children, and through the eyes of the heavenly father, by doing so, what a difference a revelation such as this will make in the child raising process.
